

Traditional music & dance since 1919

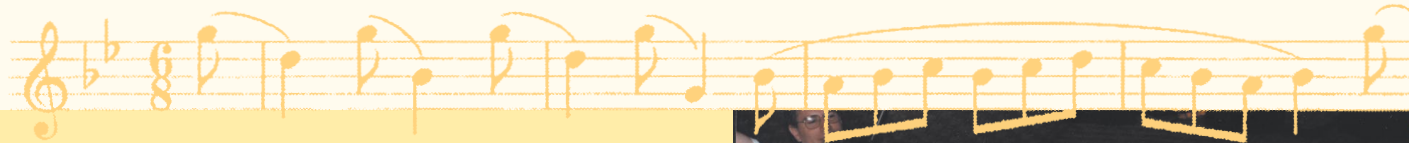

When Helen Storrow founded Pinewoods in 1919 she launched a lasting tradition. Campers return every summer to live in a beautiful forest, swim in the clear waters of the ponds, and immerse themselves in an intense program of dance, music and song. Long-time campers describe it as their favorite place on earth. As the oldest continuously operating facility for traditional dance and music in the United States, Pinewoods attracts enthusiastic participants from throughout America and around the world.

The importance of Pinewoods, however, goes far beyond its rich and honored history. Its magic lies in the beauty of the place, the community it fosters, and the commitment of the people who work to preserve it so others can enjoy it in the future.

Continuing the Pinewoods tradition for future generations

Using careful planning and prudent fiscal management, Pinewoods Camp is able to cover the costs of summer operations through our camper fees, including year-round staffing costs and ongoing maintenance and repairs. Protecting our facilities and fragile grounds and preserving the camp's unique character, however, requires an additional level of sustained financial support.

Your Planned Gift will, in part, enable Pinewoods Camp to make needed improvements and upgrades, including the replacement of seriously dilapidated buildings when necessary.

It will also provide Pinewoods with the "self-insurance" needed to survive, and recover from, catastrophic events. Our insurance broker classifies camp as a seasonal property. As such, our risk insurance covers only 80% of the depreciated, appraised cash value of the larger buildings, not the total replacement cost. The cost of insuring the other 80-odd cabins, bathhouses, and smaller buildings would be greater than the cost of re-building them ourselves.

As you plan your financial legacy, we encourage you to make Pinewoods Camp one of your beneficiaries. Bequests from you, and like-minded others, will enable Pinewoods to maintain a carefully managed fund which will ensure both its preservation and protection, continuing the Pinewoods experience for generations to come.

"We've been drawn to Pinewoods for decades – a place designed, built, and nurtured by so many. We see young people leading in song, dance, and music – their parents having met at Pinewoods. What better way to continue our part in it than by a bequest?"

Chris Reynolds and Jim Greaney

What should you know about bequests

There are a number of benefits that accrue to you with this type of giving:

- Your estate may be eligible for a charitable tax deduction.
- It requires no minimum amount and will not alter your current lifestyle in any way.
- A bequest can be modified at any time to address your changing needs.
- It's simple. Your attorney can add a bequest to your will or living trust in as little as one sentence.

"Pinewoods is undeniably a part of me – contributing richly to the tapestry of my life. Planned Giving is my way of weaving the threads of music, dance and place into a strong fabric, providing a source of warmth and joy for the generations to come."

Deborah Kruskal

The Storrow Society recognizes supporters who have committed to preserving Pinewoods Camp by naming PCI in their will or other estate plans. As a Storrow Society member, you will receive periodic publications and invitations to occasional special events in recognition of your financial commitment and support.

Notifying us is optional, but if you do decide to include Pinewoods in your will, we would like to know about it so we can recognize your bequest and include you in the Storrow Society.

"Putting Pinewoods Camp Inc. into my estate plan helps ensure that those I love and those who love camp will continue to have this special place to enjoy. It's my legacy for dancing into the sunset!"
